Moments In Motion

As we enter the theater
The air is electrified with excitement and anticipation.
The murmur of voices and laughter
Surround us as we take our seats.
The lights dim and a quiet hush
Falls upon the waiting crowd.
Slowly the memories drift before us
On the silver screen.

Moments In

Students come and students go, but teachers remain to channel the flow. We've tried to learn a lot in high school and our teachers have always done their best to help us. The seniors of 83 would like to feature some of the people who make our four years at LHS some of the best.

Mr. Newell is a teacher who gets to know students, and vice versa. One student commented, "He's an entertaining teacher. His classes exacting, but refreshing." Teaching government, American history, and advanced P.E. at the High School and P.E. at the Junior High, he also puts in coaching duties at Beverly. Anyone who has been through his classes knows they are fun as well as work. Students can participate in football polls, try to guess answers for A's he gives away, or talk about any number of things during class. His comment on Kansas Gas Prices is, "I can't afford them. If I come to school in insulated coveralls, you'll know what happened." About his grading scale, he says, "You'd swear the curve breaks on your name."

Moreover, he considers it embarrassing not to know the answer to a question and he says that if he wasn't teaching, he'd be an oil worker in Tulsa. "They've got the money." Mr. Newell feels that students in his class get out of it exactly what they put into it. In most cases, that's a lot.

Remembrance

Mr. Roberts, a catalyst at Lincoln High School, serves as Chemistry, Biology, Physics teacher and photography director, besides reading numerous articles on science and pursuing projects such as coin collecting and a filmstrip on the wildflowers of Kansas.

During a break between classes, he gave his views on his courses and specific interests. "Much of Chemistry and Physics is interrelated, as are all sciences. Recent gains in medicine can be traced to Biology and Physics. Advances in Nuclear energy correspond to Chemistry. A few years back, I taught a class of general sciences with elements of Chemistry, Physics, Biology, and earth sciences all thrown together to show this relation."

Mr. Roberts feels that, "Questions students pose are not difficult, but I am always looking for better explanations for those questions." He believes, "If you can apply logic to your thinking, you can do anything."

Mr. Ray Everhart serves as our "guiding light" here at Lincoln High. He has the responsibility of seeing that students are aware of their needs for the future, and he strives to fulfill those needs. He is second only to parents in influencing our choices for the future, and he takes his job very seriously.

Mr. Everhart feels his work consists of being there to listen, suggest and direct. He wants to make the students like themselves so they will try harder to succeed. It is a difficult job, but Mr. Everhart handles it effectively. Making students feel like their problems are top priority is a great feeling to have.

Mr. Everhart once said that he derives satisfaction from seeing that he has helped someone. He should get a lot of satisfaction from the class of '83.

Mr. Robert Thompson, carrying out duties as Activities Director when not in the classroom, has profited students for many years. His business courses, consistently regarded as beneficial for college preparation, also teach practical life skills.

The benefits of accounting, for instance, are numerous. It is invaluable for figuring income tax and budgeting. Business law is an introduction to the work world that could prove valuable in the future.

Mr. Thompson's philosophy is, "I'm always there to help, but students have to ask for it." This attitude has taught Lincoln High School students to speak up when something isn't understood, a valuable asset in the years ahead.

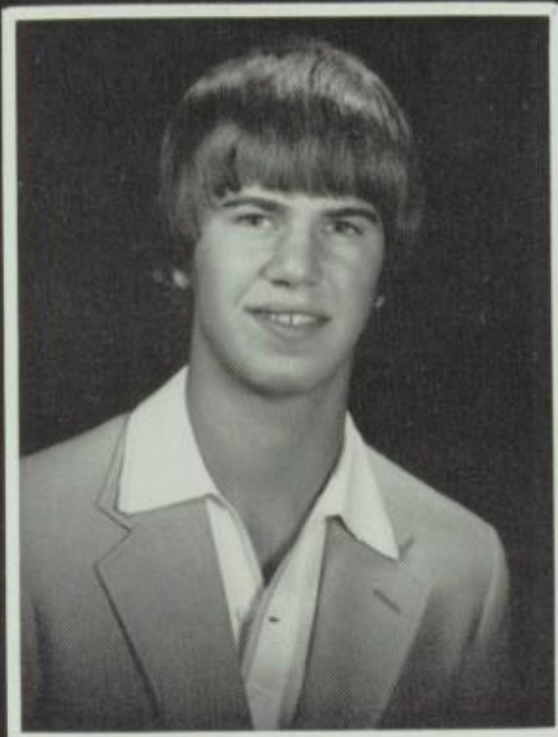

Mr. Thompson is someone students count on and the students of 1983 won't forget that.

SARAH LARSEN

Don't part with your illusions. When they are gone, you may still exist, But you have ceased to live.

ALAN LUCK

You can only live once-but if you live right, once is enough!

TIM MCCARTER

Whether you should fear a black cat crossing your path depends on your existence as a man or a mouse.

ROSARIO PONCE

Life is life, Love is love and together they create something that is called illusion.

JILL RASMUSSEN

There is only one success- to be able to spend your life in your own way.

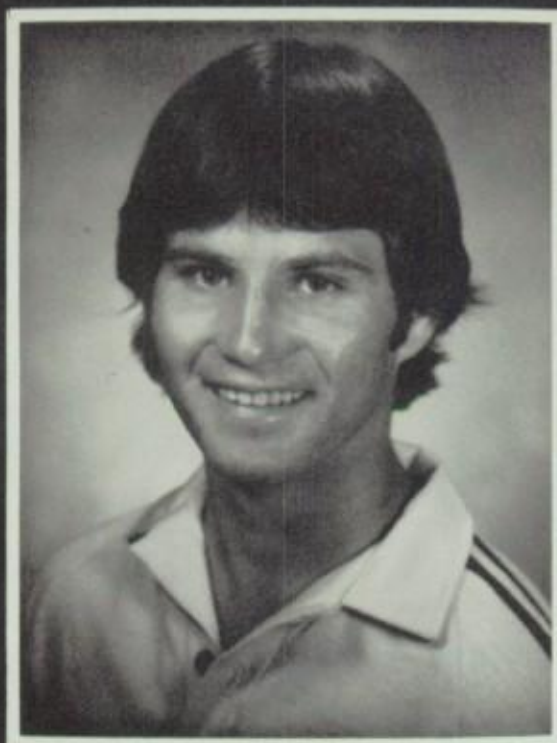

LINDA SUELTER

Look up and not down; look out and not in; look forward and not back; and lend a hand.

MONA NEWTON

Don't walk in front of me- I may not follow.
Don't walk behind me- I may not lead. Walk beside me and just be my friend.

ROBERT OCHOA

The young are slaves to dreams.

TERESA PANZER

Hold fast to dreams for if dreams die, life is a broken winged bird that cannot fly.

0 WENDELL SUELTER

mined by what you put into it.

Movie Guide

Special Edition

A drama dealing with the conflict between farmers and ranchers. It stars: Wendell Suelter and Alan Luck, two farmers determined to fight back, and horse rancher Amy Hickman and her trainer, Teresa Panzer, who are fighting for their rights. Featuring Robert Ochoa as the local Massey Ferguson dealer who struggles to keep peace in the town.

Western Friction

We all enjoy watching the Miss Universe Pageant but few of us see all the work that goes into that "final" performance that may begin a whole new career. At last, a movie has been made about what goes on behind the scenes. There's an international cast of characters including: Kim Veverka - Miss America, Rosario Ponce - Miss Honduras, Pricillo Moreno Miss Guatamala, and Claudia Brudna - Miss Germany. Chad Walter is the MC for this big event.

Me, Miss Universe?

A young reporter, portrayed by Tina Green, has set out to make a name for herself in the world of sports' broadcasting. Guest stars are: Aaron Chard, a referee who's cleaning up drugs in the sports' world, N.F.L. Cheerleader Ann Rasmussen, who gives advice on making the squad, Boxer Robert Chitty, who reaccounts his win over Helmer Kenty for the Lightweight Title, and Jill Harlow, who tells of her disappointing 2nd place in the Women's Moto Cross.

Sports on the Spot

The new Pilot series to be started this fall on LHS Network is a must for all medical buffs. There's excitement of emotional and physical drama as Dr. David Driscoll, his faithful nurse Gina Gourley, and physical therapist, Lisa Andreasen, form a team to help conquer the problems that arise. Guest stars: Sarah Larsen, forced by circumstances to donate her body to First Aid Practice, and Steve Good, drummer for the latest rock group "Wild and Crazy" is aided in his recovery following an automobile accident.

As the Bone Breaks

Senior Predictions

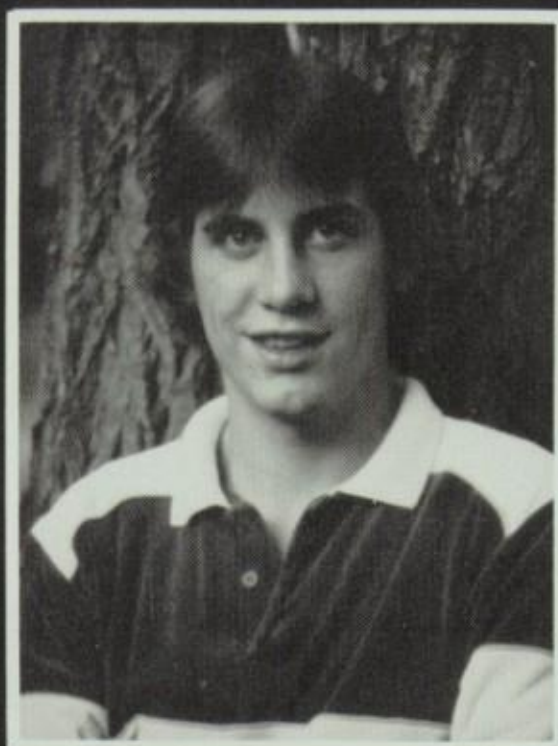

Wishing Star

Lisa Bolte, model for Glamour Magazine, was one of the many celebrities who participated in the March of Dimes' Tennis Tournament. Famous opera singer, Ginger Watson, gave a special performance for the President and First Lady, Sunday, at Carnegie Hall where she is performing for 3 weeks. The up-and-coming secretary, Tricia Wirth, revealed today that she keeps her fingers in shape by moonlighting as a pianist. On the social scene, a double wedding takes the cake. Barb Zachgo and Mona Newton have wed the Wolting brothers, Rick and Rod, in the biggest wedding in Lincoln county in years. General Tim McCarter was called from the disturbance in Central America. He told his men to stay tough, do their jobs, and that he would return. A new aircraft, designed by Royce Holman, won Most Advanced Aircraft of the 90's at the Worlds Fair. This new model will be used by the U. S. Airforce. At the National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma, Lonnie Donley, a new comer to the circuit, advanced to the finals only to place second under Pro Rodeo Star Butch Kirby. Roberta Anderson-Jones, mother of 3 and housewife, was cited the Good Citizenship Award Friday for her outstanding work in improving the community. A new album has been released by song writer, Gelane Clark. This is the 5th to her credit. That may not be all that's to her credit, there's some excitement in the air as to an approaching engagement, but no final word has been released. Police Chief Matthew Hair has been busy keeping peace in the big metropolis of Lincoln. He asks that people not hesitate to report crimes witnessed. It will greatly aid in the nation wide fight against crime. The new owner of IGA, Van Easterberg, is looking forward to serving people in the community. He's predicting a good year and hoping to maintain well balanced prices. Melanie Darbe was home visiting, taking a break from her hectic schedule as a book critic for Time Magazine. She said the open space and fresh air was a nice change from New York. Janice Wolfe recently exhibited her paintings at an art gallery in New York. Her paintings are said to have captured the hearts of all the viewers. Lincoln Alumni, Sam Holloway, who's a member of the U.S. Olympic Team, is honored to be the 1st person from Lincoln to have won the decathlon in the 1988 Summer Olympics. The world of demolition derbies has had little choice but to notice Chuck White, the hottest new driver. He will stop at nothing to eliminate other cars. On the streets though, he drives with much skill and care. Jill Rasmussen's day of glory has finally come. Today she defeated Bjorn Borg for the Co-ed Championship at Wimbledon. She admitted later it was a tough match, but she never had any doubts. Linda Suelter, who previously graduated from Yale University, was named the Dean today after being highly recommended by the Board of Directors. Sandra Gregg took her 2nd grade class on a trip to the Wichita Zoo this past week. She said they all had a good time except for when they lost Johnny near the gorilla cage. He was later found feeding the ducks. Sandra has received honorable mention from the Kansas Teachers Association for her outstanding work. Tom Feldkamp has finished construction on his 3rd housing development project in Manhattan, Kansas, where he is now the owner of a construction company. Woodworking is a special hobby he enjoys on days off at home.

GINGER WATSON

True happiness consists not in the multitude of friends, but in their worth and value.

Ladies and Gentlemen, welcome to the Mick Rouglas Show with your host Mr. Mick Rouglas! "Thank you. Boy, do we have a good show for you today. Our guests are the class of 1984 from Lincoln High School in Lincoln, Kansas. The class of 1984 is a unique class. They have spent three years in LHS and are still striving for the top-the day they will become seniors.

Let's meet a few of the juniors that make up this class and see how they feel about becoming a senior.

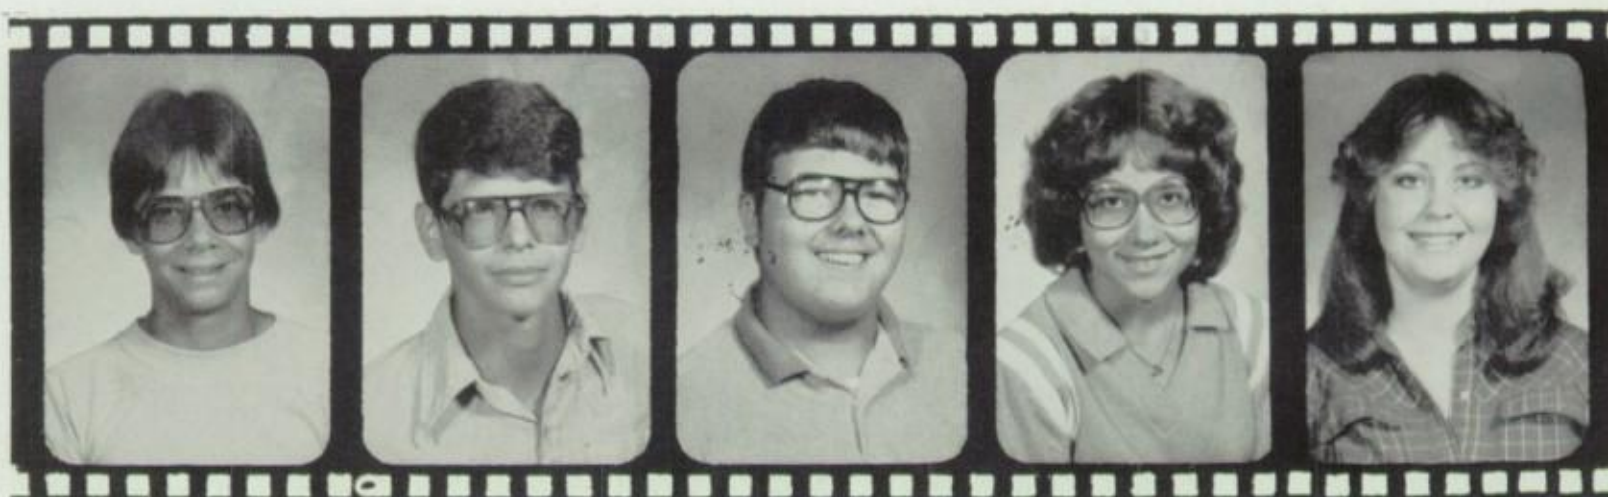

"Miss Sally Morgan, tell us how you feel about being a senior next year?"

"I'm looking forward to a great year."

"Mr. Eddie Loy, what are your thoughts of being a senior next year?"

"It will be more enthusiastic than the years before."

Thank you Sally and Ed, and thank-you Junior Class for making LHS a brighter place to be.

Good evening, this is Wally Crokite with the evening news. The class of 1985 made LHS history. They came to LHS in 1981, scared and worried about high school. But after completing their second year their worries are over. Never did LHS have a class with so many smiles and friendly people as the class of 1985. With their qualities of good nature they are sure to succeed in the years to come. This year the sophomore class brought more spice and life into the old halls of LHS than ever before and we are sure this will continue until their graduation. And that's the way it was with the sophomore class in 1982/83.

Welcome to "The Answer is Right" with your hostess Barb Baker. Today we have all the way from Lincoln High School, Lincoln, Kansas, the class of 1986!

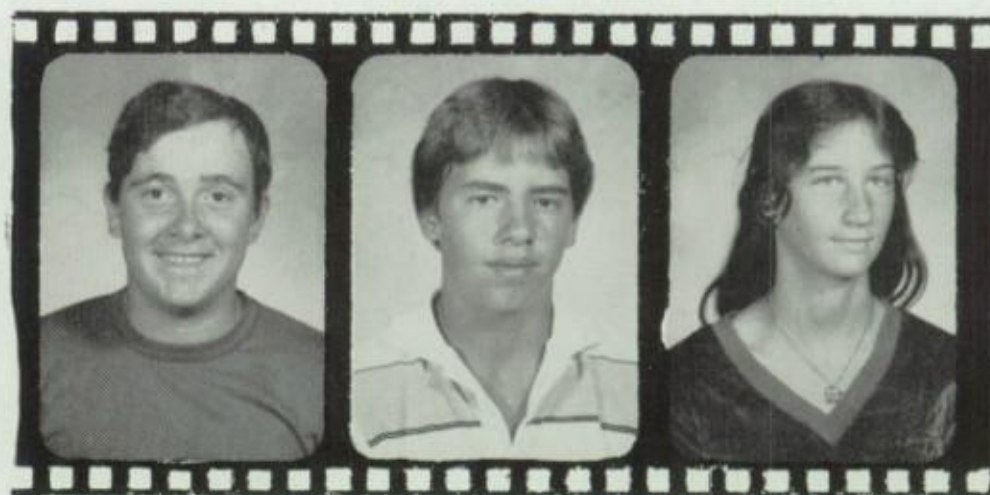

For those not acquainted with our show, our format is to ask our contestants questions and take a survey to see if they can come up with the right answer!

We asked LHS 86'ers "What are the most exciting things about High School?" They replied, "Sports, teachers, and new friends."

Our second question, "What were some of the changes made since being in High School?" got the response of more mature behavior and better study habits.

Our final question of the day was, "What was the most challenging thing about high school?" The Freshman class replied, "Getting better grades and getting better at sports."

We have tallied the answers and are happy to announce that the Class of 1986 are all winners!!

Leopards In Action Instant Replay

When the 1982 season began, the Leopards had their work cut out for them. They started the season with a disappointing defeat but went on to capture three consecutive victories. After a hard fought defeat to Clifton-Clyde, the Leopards soundly defeated the Linn Bulldogs for Homecoming. In the following game, against Solomon, the Leopards suffered a bad break when senior, Sam Holloway injured his ankle and was out for the remainder of the season. The team fought back but fell short of victory. Although the Leopards were defeated in the final two games of the season, they played solidly and gave two tough teams hard fought battles.

It was a challenging season for the team. They made several adjustments due to injuries and many underclassmen seeing "A" team action. The young line improved considerably over the course of the season adding to the consistent leadership provided by the seniors. L.H.S. is proud of you!

Senior Lettermen

Dave Cole

The 7 Seniors who led the football team were truly outstanding. Their accomplishments as a team and as individuals outshone all others.

Dave Cole's ability in the offensive and defensive end positions was a valuable asset to the team.

Alan Luck captured an Honorable Mention in the Salina Journal's 2A State Team with his performance as a slotback and safety.

Sam Holloway won the honors of Salina Journal's and Topeka's All State 2A 1st Team and the All Area State Team. He had many spectacular performances as a runningback and linebacker.

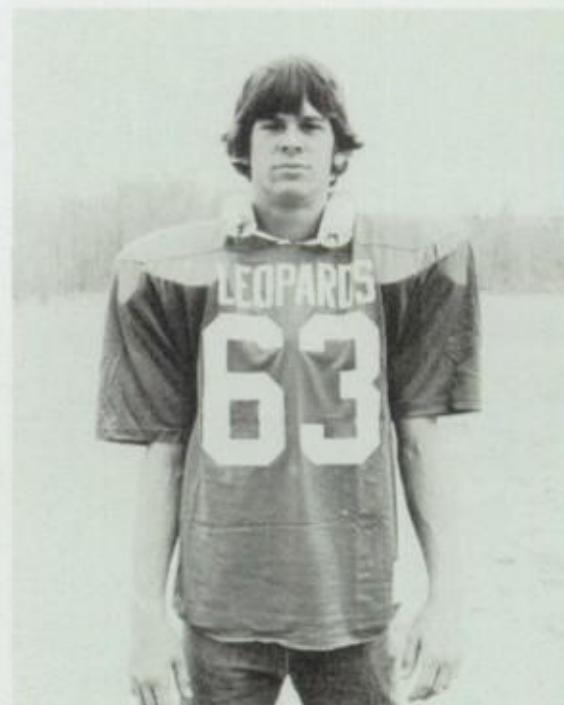

Lonnie Donley and Wendell Suelter kept the opponents from scoring in their defensive line-er positions. Lonnie also headed the offensive line.

Van Easterberg joined the team for the first time his Senior year and aided the team with his encouragement and support.

Chad Walter rounded out the Seniors in his position as Quarterback. He received the awards of Topeka's All State 2A 1st Team and the Salina Journal's All State 2A 1st Team.

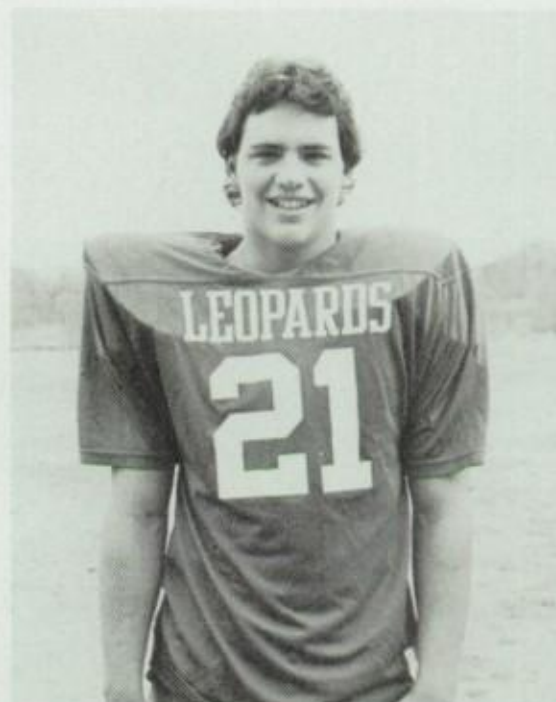

The team together has compiled a total of four winning seasons. They continually impressed both the community and their fellow classmates.

Junior Lettermen

Alan Diehl and Jim Hartzell

Ten Juniors played to the best of their ability this year to help the Leopards defeat their opponets. Experience was gained with each game and improvement followed.

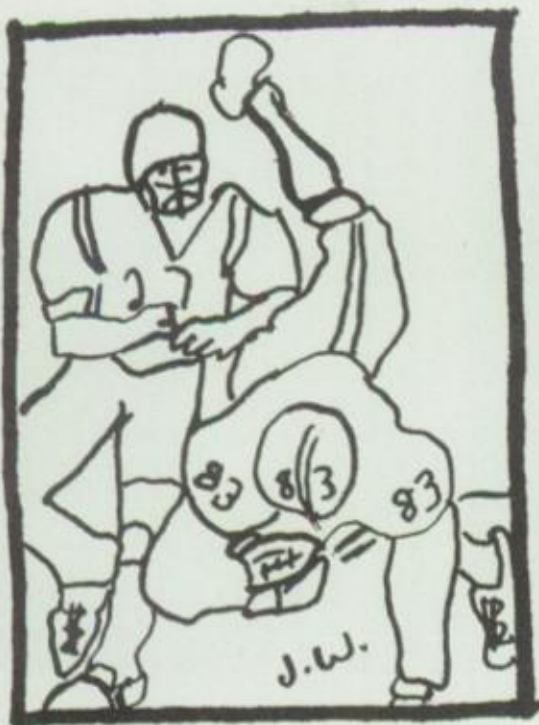

Mark Obermueller, Kevin Wolf, Dave Gile, Jim Cazier, and David Speicher constituted the line. Their hard work enabled the offense to put the ball in action.

Rodney Gouldin, Kirk Wollesen, and James Vestal, as backs, ran the ball to move the Leopards down the field.

Alan Diehl and Jim Hartzell devoted their time to catching passes in their end positions.

Enthusiasm describes the 1982 Volleyball year. The girl's positive attitude spirited hard, determined effort not always reflected in the scoreboard. This effort was apparent in the way everyone worked together.

The Yearbook Staff asked some of the girls what they thought of this year's volleyball team. Their answers were:

"I think that we have had one of the best years I have ever experienced."

"Although we didn't win many games, we played well and had good sportsmanship." Sportsmanship; one of the biggest trademarks in Lincoln's athletic sports. It's the major component that makes all athletics worthwhile. When asked how she felt about the year, Coach Abell replied:

"It was a fun year. Although we had a small squad, it made us play more like a team."

These statements go to show us that no matter how small a person or squad is, the confidence and enthusiasm always remain within their hearts. All of us at Lincoln High would like to give a standing ovation to all those who put in their time, effort, skill and most of all enthusiasm to make this volleyball year a year to remember. THANKS AND GOOD LUCK NEXT YEAR!

Tennis Takes

When summer ended ten girls were ready to swing into action for the 1982 tennis season, during which the girls traveled to Ellsworth, Lyons, Sterling, Lindsborg, Victoria, Claflin, and hosted two meets in Lincoln. Finally, the girls traveled to Hays for the Regional competition, where Jill Rasmussen captured third place, which qualified her for state.

Girls lettering included: Lisa Bolte, Stacey Chard, Jackie Ortiz, Ann Rasmussen, Jill Rasmussen, Renee Speicher, and Kim Veverka.

The team had a successful year and all the girls improved each week. The future looks bright for the years to come.

Alan jumps into form

The LHS tennis team had a great year. The team was young but all the underclassmen showed great promise. Alan Luck was the number one singles player and he compiled a 14-7 record. Ed Loy, a junior, played number two singles. The doubles teams were juniors Alan Diehl and Jim Cazier and sophomores Travis Price and Tony Branfort. Robert Chitty also played number two doubles. The teams' fearless leader was Coach Ortiz. Due to strong competition in the Regional, none of the Leopards qualified for State. The team worked hard and had alot of fun. LHS is proud of you!

The boy's basketball team had a successful season and gave their fans much to cheer about. The team faced many challenges during the year and ended the season with a 13-7 record. The Leopards got off to a good start winning seven of their first nine games. Then the Leopards traveled to Belleville to participate in the Cross-Roads Classic. The team had high hopes of winning the Classic for the second straight year. However, their hopes were dashed in the semi-finals, when they lost to Sabetha 63-60. Then the Leopards played Herington for third place, losing 59-54. It was a disappointing tournament but the Leopards bounced back and won six of nine remaining games. The Leopards hosted their first round of Sub-State against Lacrosse. They won the game and moved on to the second round at Claflin to take on the Claflin Wildcats. The game was close but the Wildcats emerged as the winners by a score of 63-57.

The team had a winning season and many of their losses were in close games. With the leadership provided by the Seniors, the team faced many challenges and was able to overcome them, even through adversity. This made LHS proud of the 82-83 basketball team!

Girls Basketball Takes 6

Winning isn't everything, but wanting to win is. This is true of the 1983 girls basketball season. The team got off to a slow start but with hard work and determination were able to improve. The girls entered the Minneapolis tournament ready for action. In the first round they faced top-seeded Concordia, staying in the game until the end when Concordia came out on top. Next the Leopards faced Beloit, losing a heartbreaker by three points. However, the Leopards finished seventh defeating Russell by ten points. That was the turning point of the season, and the girls played consistently the rest of the season, winning four of their last eight games. The final victory came in the first game of Sub-State against Lacrosse. At half time the Leopards trailed by ten, but were able to come back and score a 44-41 upset. Next the girls played Claflin hoping to score another upset. Their chances looked good as the first half ended with Lincoln ahead 20-17. In the second half the Leopards couldn't maintain their lead and foul trouble caused four of five starters to leave the game. The final score was 44-36 in favor of Claflin, who went on to state. The girls finished the season with a 6-14 record. Good Luck next year!

Wrestlers Have Challenging Season

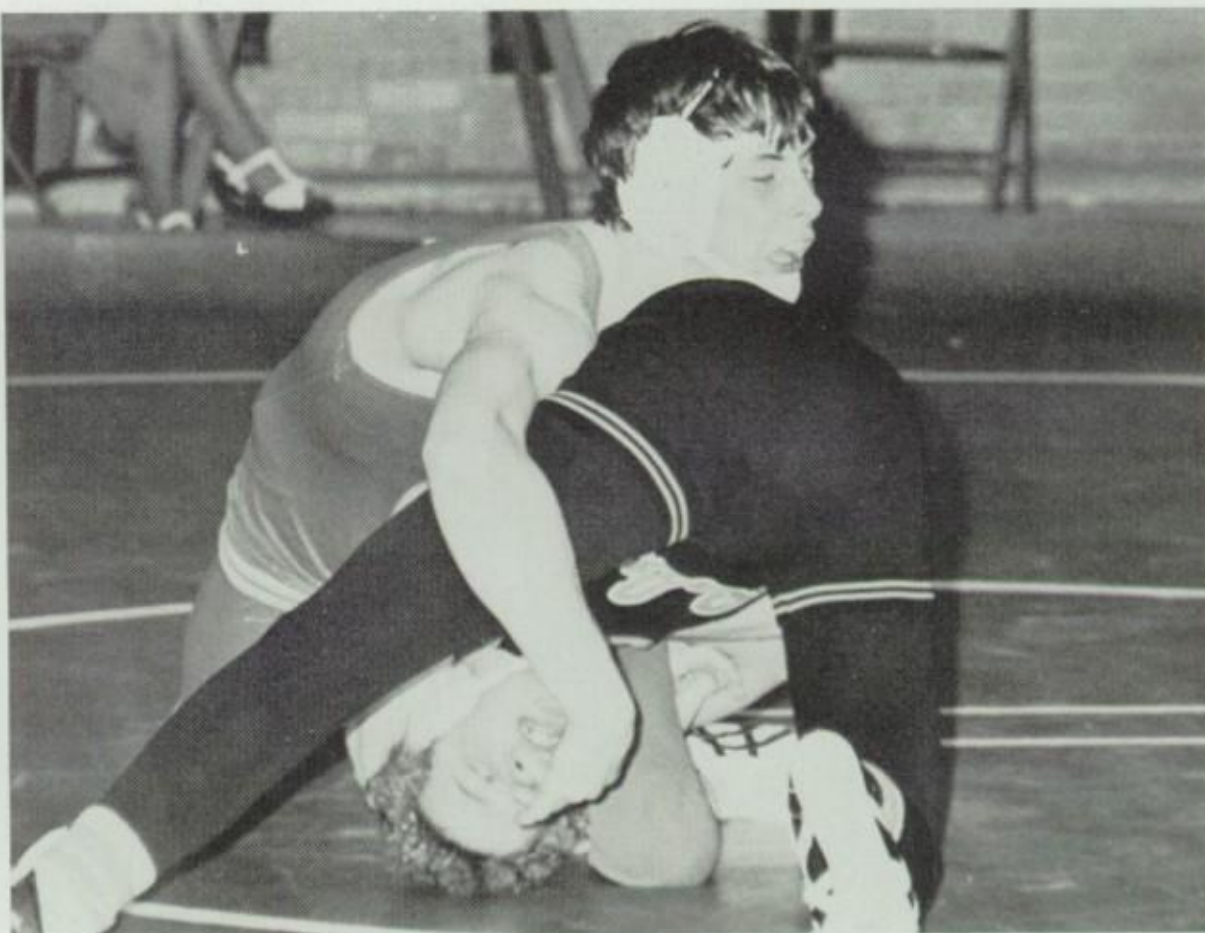

The 1982-83 Leopard grapplers opened the wrestling season impressively by winning their first double duel against Hesston and Herington. Throughout the season they won many matches, building good records for some of the wrestlers. Mark Obermueller, Wolf, Speicher, and Puente all placed at various tournaments, bringing home a number of medals, showing the skill & courage of fine wrestlers. Although Martin Puente was the only one to advance on to state, all wrestlers had a fun season and gained valuable experience. Good luck in the years to come, wrestlers!

Gee. It's a long way down.

State Bound!

Cole . . . Working?!!!

The track season began in the midsts of cold winds and spring snows. Nevertheless, 4 Seniors, 7 Juniors, 2 Sophomores, and 2 Freshmen came out to brace the elements. Although the weather wasn't always cooperative, the team worked hard. It all payed off when Chad Walters vault of 13' 6" set a new school record and earned him the top spot at State.

Our squad was small, but production was large. The 15 guys on the team scored a total of 433 pts., as well as taking the second place trophy at the Southeast Invitational.

Once again the Leopards will send people to Wichita for the state meet. This year will include Dave Cole, Sam Holloway, Chad Walter, Steve Rasmussen, and Coach Thompson.

C. Walter, S. Holloway, A. Rathbun, J. Vestal, C. Sherlock, D. Cole, S. Rasmussen, D. Holloway. Front Row: J. Hartzell, J. Luck, D. Meili, T. Ross, R. Gouldin, A. Chard.

Seniors: Claudia, Amy, and Rosy.

The girl's track team consisted of three seniors, three juniors, one sophomore, and five freshmen this year. The team came up against some tough competition at the seven track meets they attended. Although they started out slow the team picked up momentum as the year went on. Each member of the team placed in one meet or another. The team shows great promise for next year.

DETERMINATION!!!

Golf Swings Into State

Collins to State.

Four! This could be heard from the L.H.S. Golf Team this year that consisted of five freshmen and two juniors. Greg Collins was the only Golfer who qualified for state and finished 13th out of 96 contestants. Yearbook asked Coach Collins how he felt about golf and his reply was: "Golf is a good sport and is good for those who participate. I hate to see it dropped as an activity."

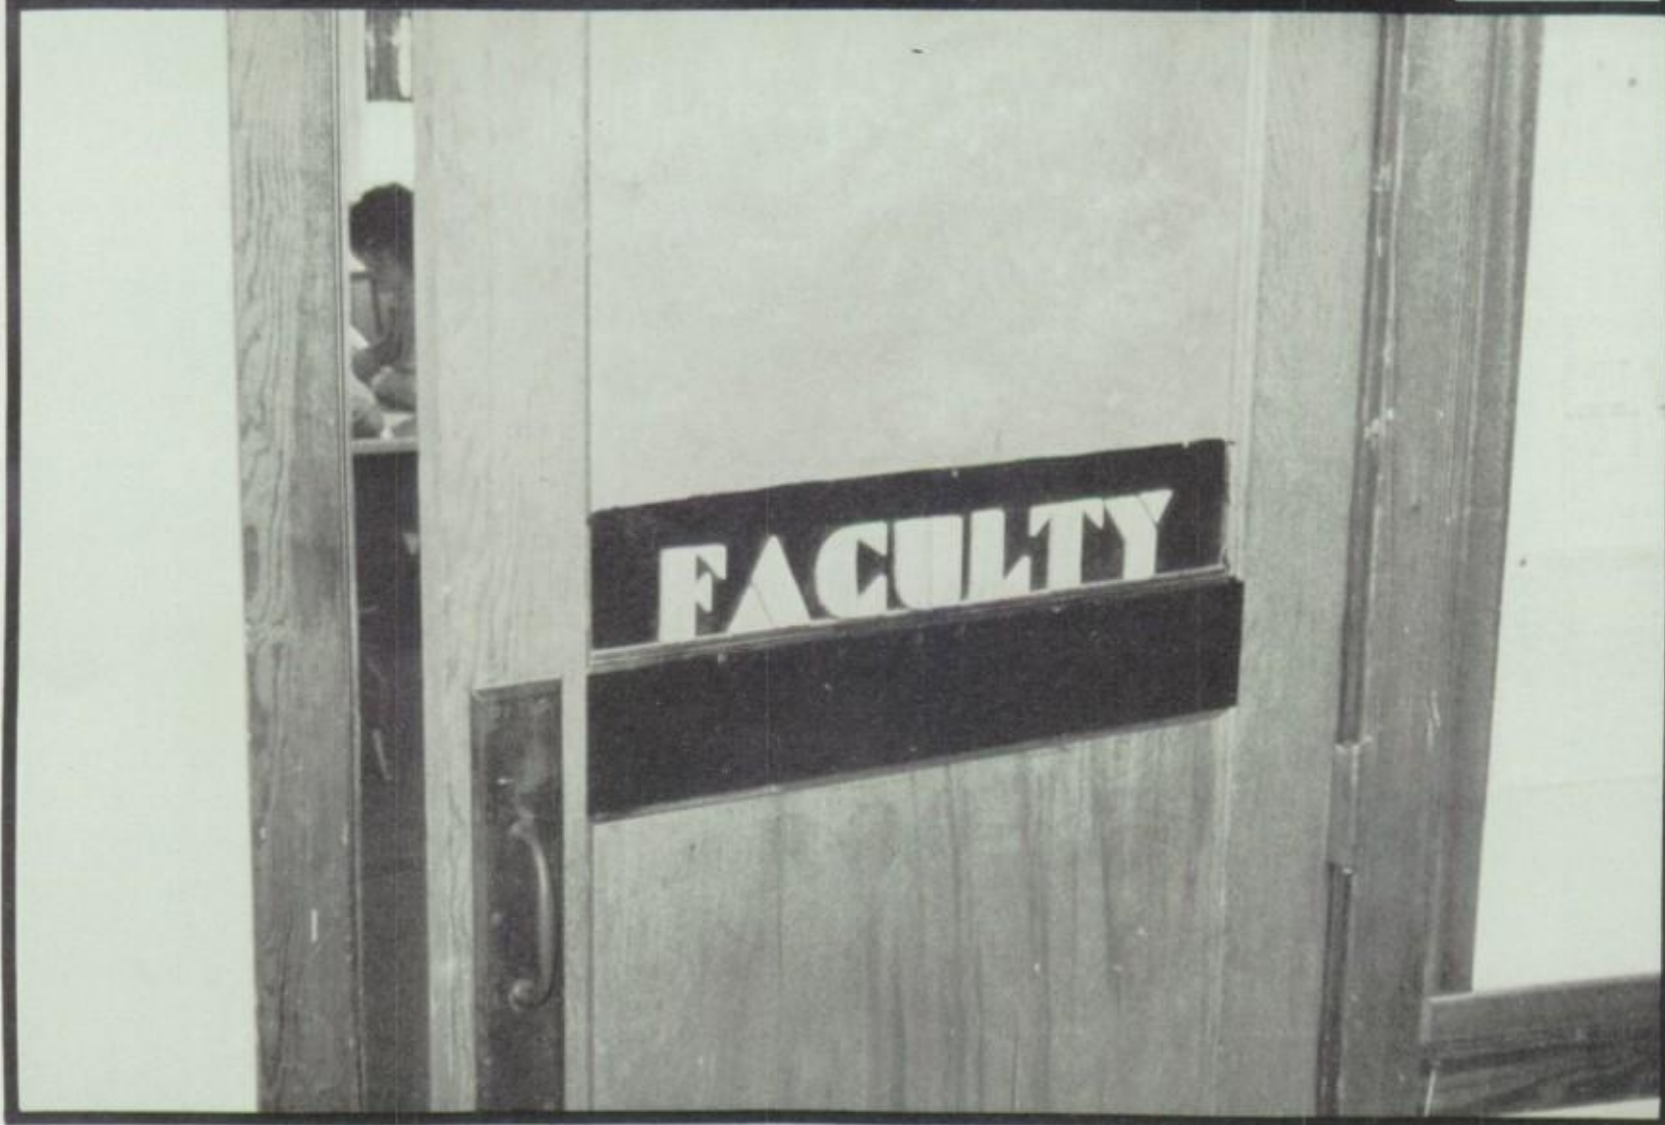

This year's team was young and inexperienced but through their hard work and effort we'd like to say: "We're proud of you"

Script, Dialect, and Choreography

Miss Jan Prochaska is one half of the English Dept. at Lincoln High School. She guides the Freshmen and Seniors through the rigors of their respective courses. She also teaches Debate/Forensics. The students participating in those classes have benefited highly from her leadership. Miss Prochaska sponsors the Yearbook and the Freshmen Class.

Mrs. Mary Ann Gourley's the second half of the English curriculum. She oversees the Sophomore and Junior Classes. In addition to her English duties, Mrs. Gourley teaches shorthand and sponsors the Sophomore Class.

Miss Eileen Windsor is the Spanish instructor at Lincoln High. Through her, Spanish students learn of the life "south of the border." Her duties include teaching Spanish I, II, II, as well as teaching Spanish at the Junior High. Her sponsoring chores include the Pep-Club and Spanish Club, which she organized this year. She is also the girls' tennis coach. coach.

Mrs. Jacqueline Abell spends one hour a day at Lincoln High School. Her time is spent instructing the female members of our student body in the importance of good health and physical fitness. Mrs. Abell follows this instruction closely as she coaches the girls' volleyball and track teams at Lincoln High School. The rest of her day is spent at the Grade School where she teaches physical education for grades kindergarten thru sixth.

Lights And Camera, Sound Technologists

Mr. Paul Roberts and Miss Cathy Peterson combine to give Lincoln High School students their background in sciences. Mr. Roberts sees practically every student in the school on a regular basis as he teaches General Science, Chemistry, and Physics. He also teaches a popular course in Photography. His talent with a camera is a valuable asset to the Yearbook Class.

Miss Peterson spends the first two hours of the day providing Lincoln High Sophomores with a thorough knowledge of Biology. The rest of her day is spent in Beverly where she teaches science and coaches girls' athletics.

Mrs. Jan Davis is very much a part of Lincoln High's music program. Her teaching assignments include Vocal Music and Girl's Ensemble. She also teaches music at several levels at the grade school. Mrs. Davis keeps the community involved by organizing fall, Christmas, and spring concerts at both schools.

Miss Tamera Waters is in her first year as Lincoln High's band director. In this first year the band has performed various new drills on the football field and kept things lively at basketball contests. Miss Waters is excited about the new look the band received when new uniforms arrived this fall. In addition to her music duties at the high school, she is band instructor for the Junior High and Grade School bands as well. She also directs the Junior High choir.

Makeup, Costume, And Construction

Miss Susan Young teaches Art I and Advanced Art at Lincoln High. She is one of the "new faces" around the school this year and students feel they have learned more about art than ever before. One of her students was quoted as saying, "she's a marvelous teacher and has a lot of patience." Miss Young also sponsors the Pep-Club, Pom-Pon Squad, and the Junior Class.

Mr. Darrel Schmeidler handles the Industrial Arts at Lincoln High School. His classes are in demand every year and are usually full. The classes he teaches include, Mechanical Drawing/Intro. to I.A., Woods I, Metals I, Advanced Woods and Advanced Metals. His school involvement doesn't end there however. He is an assistant football coach and the wrestling coach. In addition to this he serves as Transportation Director for the school's busing schedule. He is a Junior Class sponsor.

Mrs. Mary Jane Day teaches Home Economics, Advanced Home Ec., and Bachelor Living at Lincoln High School. Her classes will enable the students who take them to be able to do many household chores that are necessary when living away from home. Mrs. Day also devotes a lot of time to the F.H.A., which she sponsors. Her leadership has enabled them to win many awards.

Historians

Mrs. Barbara Gourley teaches World History, Psychology, and Sociology at Lincoln High. These courses help students learn to deal with the different people they meet each day. When she isn't busy with this, she can be found in the library where she serves as librarian. Mrs. Gourley also sponsors the Kayettes. This group is consistently active, doing a variety of service projects every year. Mrs. Gourley's dedication has contributed to much of the Kayettes' success. Mrs. Gourley also takes on the task of sponsoring the Senior Class.

Assistant Librarian, Mrs. Joan Detmer, insures that the library runs smoothly every day of the school week. She does this by tagging new books, making sure overdues are returned, and checking passes to see that students who are in the library have a reason to be there. She also assists the school as a substitute teacher when needed.

Mr. Charles Newell is the man to talk to when it comes to American History, American Government, or Advanced P.E. He makes these classes fun, so the students who take them learn more. Mr. Newell's courses are popular and his even temper makes him one of the student body's favorite teachers. Mr. Newell sponsors the Junior Class. In addition to his duties at the high school, he teaches boy's P.E. at Beverly and coaches Jr. High boy's athletics.

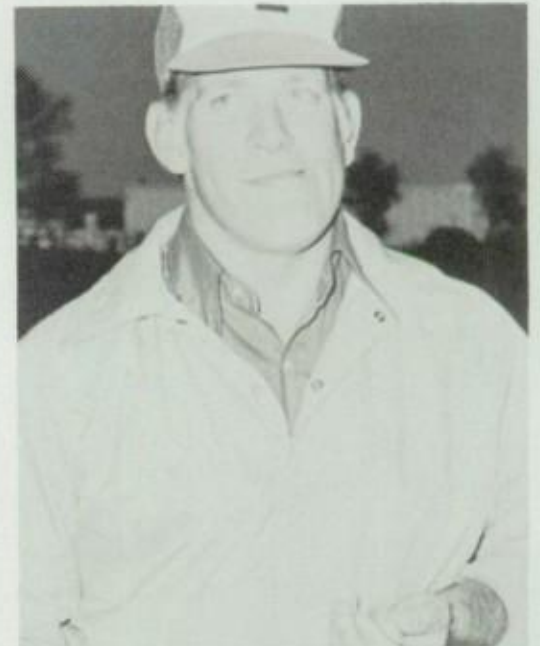

Budget

Mr. Robert Thompson serves a variety of roles at Lincoln High. In the classroom he teaches Economics, Accounting I and II, Business Law, and Driver Education. Outside the classroom he is our Activities Director, scheduling all extra curricular activities for the high school. In addition to all this, he coaches the boy's track team, assists in coaching the Jr. High football team, sponsors the high school's L-Club, and the Freshmen Class.

When one thinks of numerals, equations, and fractions, they are thinking of Mr. Gale McNemee. The reason for this is simple. He is the Mathematics Dept. at Lincoln High School. His courses include General Math, Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, and Advanced Math. After classes he is active in Lincoln High sports. He serves as assistant football coach and head boys' basketball coach. Mr. McNemee also sponsors the Sophomore Class.

Mr. Joe Ortiz is at the controls of the Basic Record Keeping, Typing I and II, and Freshmen boys P.E./Health classes. These classes seem to be very popular every year at Lincoln High. He is also very much involved in athletics. Mr. Ortiz is the head football coach, head girls' basketball coach, and the boys' tennis coach. Mr. Ortiz sponsors the Freshmen Class.

Special Effects

Mr. Ray Everhart is our Counselor at L.H.S. His dedication to his job and the student body is iron clad. He feels it is important to make students "believe in their own abilities." This philosophy has enabled him to help students help themselves throughout the years. No student will be able to forget their meetings with him. Mr. Everhart assists in coaching the boys' basketball team as well as sponsoring the Student Council and Senior Class.

Mrs. Kathy Schmeidler is at the high school all week. She is Mrs. Crawford's assistant in the Special Ed. Department. She has essentially the same schedule as Mrs. Crawford, except she is here to help students with their classroom difficulties every day. She has been a great help to Lincoln High's Special Ed. program and the students as well.

Mrs. Betty Crawford is at the Lincoln High School only two days a week, but when she's here, students get the most of it! Mrs. Crawford is the special education instructor. Her job involves assisting students who need a little extra help with classroom work. She finds her job very rewarding, and so do her students.

Crew

Doris Rathbun, Nola Cromwell, and Betty Heinze devote much time and effort all year long at Lincoln High. The chore of preparing and serving hot lunches to the student body and faculty has become increasingly difficult, but they endure. We all appreciate their dedication.

Our faithful flock of bus drivers serve in a big way too. Over the course of the year they cover some 221,237 miles to bring L.H.S. students to school and other related activities. Good work guys! Front Row: J. Rathbun, P. Smith, N. Cromwell, L. Kissick, D. Lyne. Back Row: P. Houston, W. McAfee, S. King, P. Loy, P. Behrens, K. Judd, M. Tiemann

Don Davis, Dee Von Fange, and Dave Wacker slave throughout the summer months to get the school ready for the new academic year. They must then keep the place looking livable for the next nine months. Although the work is substantial, they always keep the school shining bright. We tip our buckets to you!

Production Consultants

The Board of Education had an active year during Lincoln's '82-'83 school term. Some of the more outstanding decisions that were made were closing the Beverly Jr. High School, eliminating the tennis and golf programs, and rejection of all-day kindergarten. The responsibilities of the members are great, and they handle them well. Take a bow guys!

The Superintendent of U.S.D. #298, Mr. Jim Stolfus, is the main link in the chain of command in Lincoln High Education. He makes sure that things run smoothly throughout the district. His job is made immensely easier with the help of his secretary, Mrs. Jan Holloway. She keeps tabs on everything entering the main office.

Mr. Tweed Ross, our fearless leader at the high school, feels his job is "to be responsible for the educational leadership of the secondary students in U.S.D. #298." Assisting Mr. Ross with these chores is Charlene Batchman, the school's secretary. Without her able assistance in the office, we would all be lost.

AFS Imports Friends.

When I first learned that I was coming to Kansas to live in a town with 150 people, and go to a school with about 150 students, I had a strange feeling; I thought it would be pretty boring.

But it isn't! I love Barnard and LHS. I wish schools in Germany were like this; full of spirit and ambition. I discovered that I like Football and Basketball-I barely missed watching any game. The great thing for me is that you have so many clubs at school and have the possibilities to get together more often. I am having a great time here, and you must know that I will miss you very much and will never forget you.

Claudia

To talk about my experiences in a few paragraphs is very difficult because I could write a book about my life in Lincoln and my experiences at LHS. I have learned many things that will change my life forever.

I will always remember my first volleyball practice. I could neither speak nor understand English. Jill Harlow, Mona Newton, and Barb Zachgo came to me and talked. I smiled, but inside I was asking myself, "What are they saying to me, I do not understand!" I knew they were offering me their friendship, and I will never forget these friends because of their kindness.

The first day of class, I was so scared, because I didn't know anyone. But soon I got along just fine. I went to the football games, I'm sorry, but I do not like that sport. Volleyball was fun, and I think basketball is very exciting. (LHS plays like a professional team to me). I love the sport of wrestling. In my country, we do not have wrestling and I worry about the boys and take pictures and enjoy every moment-I almost cry when they lose! Now it is time for track and I am enjoying track.

The time is growing short and I will have to leave. I will miss everyone and I will cherish every moment, sad or happy, that I have had at LHS. I love LHS and I will never forget my friends because I love you. I promise to come back and see you again.

Thank you again, LHS, I will love you forever.

See you later,

Rosy

Witches and Company chant their spell.

The stars have shown this year for the Kayettes. The Kayettes' duties are year-long projects. In October, the club sold Spook Insurance to the Lincoln Merchants. In November, they held the annual Turkey of the Year Contest in which each teacher was a nominee for the Turkey Title. The money raised, $139.05, went to the American Cancer Society. In December, Kayettes sponsored the Snowball Dance and in February they sold carnations for Valentines Day. The Regional Kayette Conference was held in Lincoln this year and seven schools attended.

The Kayettes would like to say thanks to Barbara Gourley for all her help and devotion. She makes Kayettes an organization which we are proud of.

F.H.A. In The Spotlight

F.H.A. was really in the Spotlight this year. They worked hard raising money for their F.H.A. National Building Fund. F.H.A. also put on the Sweetheart Ball, hiring a band for the first time in two years. The big project this year was getting acquainted with the Freshmen. The girls went to Barnard to a weiner roast and later walked through a spooky Haunted House. The F.H.A. girls put on their annual Tea-Style Show April 20, 1983 for the 8th grade and the public.

For all the hard work and patience, F.H.A. would like to give their appreciation to Mary Jane Day. Thanks a million!

The L.H.S. Pom Pon Squad performed during the boy's varsity basketball games for the second year. The routines were performed to the songs, Centerfold by J. Geils and Mountain Music by Alabama. The squad consisted of 5 seniors, 4 juniors, 1 sophomore, and 2 freshmen. We hope that in the years to come, it will continue to grow and perform successfully at L.H.S. games.

Winding down the routine

The 1982-1983 Pep Club started the year off with a bang! Led by the officers, President Teresa Panzer, Vice-President Stacey Chard, and Secretary-Treasurer Heidi Brummer and two new sponsors, Miss Susan Young and Miss Eileen Windsor, the Pep Club accomplished its major goal, Homecoming, early in the year. This year's Homecoming proved to be one of the most successful. Each event provided excitement for the entire student body. Pep Club started out the week by sponsoring the annual spirit week with students dressing up in various ways throughout the week. The float committee began work on the Queen's float and had it ready for the parade Friday. Again, the Pep Club sponsored the bonfire with the members supplying the food for the student body. The Pep Club's duties ended on Friday after the gym was decorated for the dance, sponsored by the Leopard Boosters. Thanks to the Pep Club for an excellent Homecoming.

Although the Pep Club didn't have any major projects after Homecoming, they continued to support the teams by cheering at the games and decorating the halls with posters. Thanks Pep Club, your support is appreciated.

The squad started out their year by attending summer camp at Bethany College. The cheerleaders were very enthusiastic and grew to be one close group. They held many pep-rallies, made posters, put signs in the players lockers, and cheered at all the games.

The 1982-1983 Volleyball-Wrestling cheerleaders were Tammy Myers and Missy Urbanek. They also attended summer camp. They raised spirit and got the crowd going at the volleyball matches and wrestling meets.

The 1982-83 Student Council kept the school busy with its many activities. A dance was held at the beginning of the school year to break the ice among the students. Stuco sponsored a bake sale at the Fall Festival and a chili supper to raise money to pay for one AFS lunch and numerous other bills. At Christmas they invited Santa Claus to come and visit. He showed up in all his glory telling bits and pieces of unknown gossip about quite a few people. The Indoor Olympics were another highlight of the Christmas party and they were enjoyed by all, especially the Faculty who won! Stuco was there through the rest of the year plotting and planning for the All-School Picnic and getting ready for next year.

FALL PLAY: Adventure in Space

The futuristic setting for the fall play was somehow appropriate. The production featured 8 underclassmen including 5 freshmen in surprising performances. Space War 2000 is about the evil Rastupo who intends to rule the universe. In the end, he is vanquished by his blind quest for power.

SPRING PLAY: Down to Earth Comedy

"The Odd Couple", Neil Simon's celebrated play, depicts two divorced men who move in together, starting as friends but soon ending up at each other's throats. The story starts when Felix is thrown out of his apartment by his wife. In despair, he goes to Oscar's apartment where Oscar's gang of poker-playing buddies are doing more arguing than playing. Felix makes a half-hearted attempt at suicide that breaks up what's left of the game. Oscar convinces Felix to move in with him and Felix reluctantly agrees. After several weeks and numerous incidents, including a hilarious encounter with two rather foppish English sisters, Oscar gets fed up. The two have it out and Felix leaves, but only after putting a large burden of guilt on Oscar's head. The play ends as they settle their differences and part in amiable "divorce".

The play's presentation on April 22 capped more than a month's worth of work for the cast and play director Jan Prochaska. A fine performance and a fun job all the way around!

Debaters Present Their Case

Debate is the civilized form of argumentation. To do well in competition, a debater must have thorough knowledge of the topic as well as the ability to speak smoothly, logically, and with persuasion. This year's Lincoln High School debate team proved to be capable of that and much more.

Nine debaters traveled to a total of eight tournaments during the 82-83 season, they were: Steve Good, Tony Branfort, Lisa Andreasen, Tweed W. Ross III, Sean Petersen, Sarah Larsen, Ed Loy, Sharon Chitty, and Shanna Bacon. All of these except for two, (Steve and Tweed) were novices (first year debaters). Despite their inexperience, the squad performed remarkably well.

At the tournament, (Minneapolis, Salina Central, Nickerson, Manhattan, Abilene, Ellsworth, and Russell) Lincoln faced tough competition time and again. Though the squad had it's fair share of losses, they also pulled of solid wins against powerhouse teams. During the season, the squad met five teams that eventually advanced to state, defeating four of them.

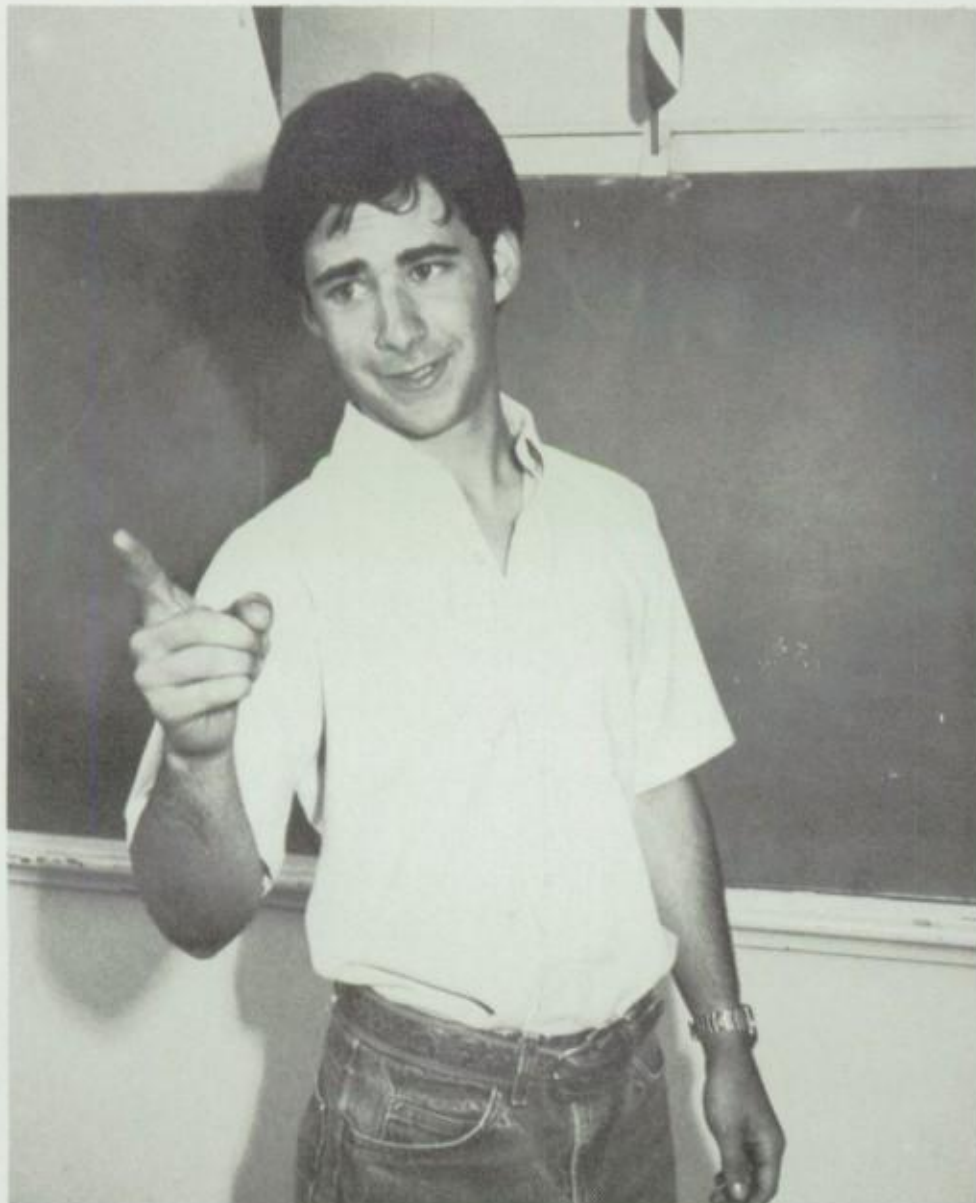

When it came time for regionals, Lincoln was ready. The regional team worked hard and captured third. To their credit, Lincoln missed qualifying for state by one loss. They ranked second in speaker points to Hoxie, the tournament winner.

All in all, it was a good year for Lincoln's debate team. They have made themselves known in debate circles, improving their own skills and gaining knowledge at the same time. The ability to explain ideas and to speak well can be used long after a debate season has ended.

Tweed and Tony review serious evidence.

A little talent and alot of hard work can go a long way; ask the 1983 forensics team. The team, composed of mostly first-time forensics people, worked hard to sharpen their speech-making skills.

At the South-East of Saline Invitational, eight students competed with four receiving metals. Competitors were: Martin, Sean, Sarah, Tony, Steve (3rd in extemp), Aaron (3rd in solo acting), Tweed (3rd in oration), and Lisa and Tweed (2nd in duet acting). The next tournament was in Ellsworth. Four competitors, Tweed, Tony, Steve, and Sarah participated with two events breaking finals.

At Regionals seven people qualified to go onto State; they were: Martin, prose ("The Day We Lost Max"), Sean, poetry (Snow Poems), Tweed, oration (Pari-mutual Betting), Steve, extemp (Current Events), Aaron, solo acting (To Kill a Mockingbird), Lisa and Tweed, duet acting (Pygmalion), and Tony and Steve, duet acting (Inherit the Wind).

All in all it was a fine year for the forensics squad and great experience for those who participated.

Behind The Scenes

The Yearbook staff has worked exceptionally hard this year. From the selling of ads to the finishing touches on final layouts, everyone has pitched in to bring things together.

Producing a Yearbook is a long and time consuming task. If it weren't for the cameramen, artists, developers, and designers it could never be accomplished. So let's hear it for the Yearbook staff!

The 1982 Homecoming festivities were underway bright and early Monday morning with Overall and Concert T-shirt Day, marking the beginning of Spirit Week at LHS. Everyone enjoyed Tuesday; Hat, Vest, Tie, and Sucker Day. Wednesday we got a look at the inside of the denim world. Calvin Clines, Lee, and Levis worn in-side-out accented by just about any kind of boot imaginable. Tradition held strong, with Jersey Day on Thursday, followed by the bonfire that night, where we burned the dummy. The Big Day finally arrived with the wearing of blue and white by the students, the afternoon queen crowning ceremony, pep rally, and parade. The grand finale was the 33-0 victory over Linn that night. The week's activities were topped off by the 1982 Homecoming/ Alumni Dance.

August Rocks Snowball

August Rocked on!

On December 18 at 8:00, the LHS students, faculty and their dates gathered at the Grade School gym to dance to the sounds of August.

At the appointed hour, Dave Cole presented the Snowball Queen Candidates and their escorts. The envelope was opened and Kim Veverka was crowned the 1982 Snowball Queen. The dancing continued until eleven o'clock, when the annual Kayette Snowball Dance came to an end. It was an enjoyable evening and thanks goes to the Kayettes for all their hard work.

FHA Sweetheart Ball

Just You & I

The FHA Sweetheart Ball was held February 11 at the Grade School Gym in the midst of the fog. The candidates were Lisa Andreasen escorted by Curt Douglass, Gelane Clark escorted by Aaron Chard, and Sandy Gregg escorted by Lawrence Larsen. All candidates were senior members of the chapter. The music was provided by "The Blades", a group from Salina. Although they had some problems cutting through the fog, they gave a sharp performance for all attending. the high-light of the evening was when Mr. Newell crowned Gelane Sweetheart Queen 1983. The evening was a success thanks to Mrs. Day and the sponsors.

Glitter, Lights, Action

The 1983 Junior/Senior Prom started off with the Banquet held at the Lincoln High School auditorium. Junior class President, Greg Collins, welcomed the Seniors and faculty, and the Senior class President, Gelane Clark, thanked the Juniors for their hard work. Aaron Rathbun then gave the invocation. For the entertainment, Sandra Hollis, Vonda Ellison, and Sally Morgan sang, "Candle on the Water." Then the meal started. The menu consisted of chicken fried steak, baked potato, corn, rolls, jello, and white cake with coffee or tea. To remember the Jr./Sr. Prom, the Juniors gave goblets to each person attending. Thanks Juniors for a wonderful Banquet!

Pres. Greg,
"Hey, Baby, What's Up?"

Pres. Gelane,
"Oh, cut that out!"

"Did someone say beer?"

Our fearless leader.

Riding The Storm Out.

"May I have this dance?"

From the Banquet in the High School auditorium, we adjourned to the Grade School at 8:30 to Rock-n-Roll to the music of "Voices". As we walked the plank to the dance floor, we could see the lighthouse and waves around us. The ceiling was made of multi-colored streamers with suspended clouds and lighting bolts. Juniors, Seniors, and their dates could be seen all over the dance floor, swinging away. Every once in a while, we even caught a faculty member "going for it"!

The dance started breaking up around midnight and everyone went their own way, some enjoying their first prom and others enjoying their last prom.

Boogie down!

CLASS MOTTO

"Where you come from is not nearly as important as where you are going."

• Audience please stand

The climax has past
The movie is over.
But we've been amused, encouraged,
And challenged by what we've seen.
There've been moments of sadness,
Laughter, glory, and defeat
And as we think back we realize that
Only the combination of the good and the bad
Have created the realism with which we
As individuals can identify.
We rise, turn our backs, and walk away.
The impressions fresh in our memory
Will not soon be forgotten.
